

Heroes Valley presents Alberto Naska's Racing season 2023

Alberto Naska and Heroes Valley give you an appointment on the racetrack for a 2023 season full of competitions.

Heroes Valley presents a busy calendar of events for the driver /content creator with important numbers: for the new season Naska is very fierce!

Alberto's commitments begin with the Motorsport GRT Team in the MitJet Italia Championship: four races per weekend that he will share with his friend Ian Rocca.

Car #54 will not go unnoticed and Naska will try to leave her mark as in every debut.

The first Mitjet date 31 March – 2 April at the Vallenga Autodromo will be the start of a racing season not to be missed.

Heroes Valley and Naska will be present again in the NASCAR Whelen Euro Series 2023 in category 2: where, after the fabulous performance in the 2022 championship, the intention is to win the title.

Alberto remains in the powerhouse of CA.AL. Racing team and will share car #54 with EuroNASCAR PRO driver Gianmarco Ercoli, aiming for the same goal: victory.

The livery of the new car will surprise the public, which thanks to Naska knew the thrill of being on the race-track.

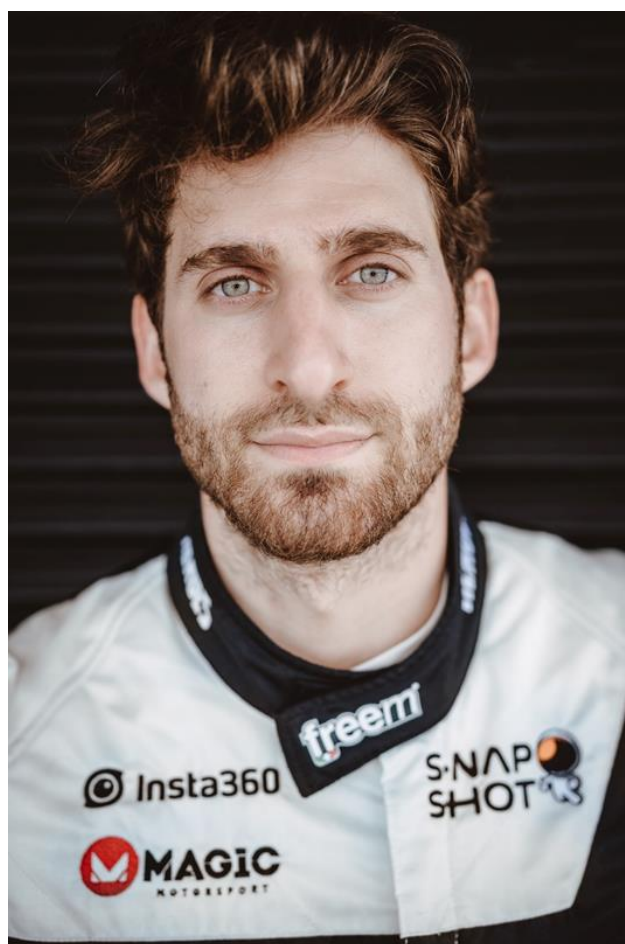

Old and new contenders will take to the starting grid: 12 rounds in the main European circuits, the first date in Valencia 5 – 7 May at the Ricardo Tormo circuit will be an “explosion”!

Finally, Heroes Valley is pleased to announce the participation of NASKA in the competitions of the newborn EuroLegend Cup 2023: 5 weekends on European racetracks alongside the NASCAR Whelen Euro Series, for a total of 15 rounds.

Three competitive races for the weekend will bring on Legend's new rivals curious to compete outside their borders, to try new circuits. Accessible races with low costs to allow as many drivers as possible to play their chances on the track.

The start will be in Valencia on May 6 – 7, goal of Legend #54: win!

Naska's plans are completed with a wild card in the Italian GT Endurance Championship on the date of Monza 15 - 17 September on the Mercedes AMG Merbag.

Heroes Valley awaits you in Vallenga on March 31st – April 2nd for the first date of the season, Italian Mitjet Championship.
